Martini Park

New Nightlife: Martini Park

Billing itself as a 'playground for grown-ups,' Martini Park, a River North offshoot of a Texas nightspot, serves up dozens of takes on the namesake drink along with upscale, finger-friendly food; there's sidewalk seating plus a flagstone interior done up with glowing panels and multiple bars – including one that doubles as a stage for nightly live music (151 W. Erie St.; 312-640-0577).
