All small bites on the new Happy Hour menu are between $5 to $8.

Nobody is happy about the sagging economy, but the one silver lining may be the great food and drink deals popping up all over town.

Martini Park's Lava Lamp Martini.

Martini Park, otherwise known as the playground for grownups, is ramping up its Happy Hour menu in a way that only adults can enjoy.

The River North restaurant/lounge/nightclub will offer special items on weekdays from 5 to 8 p.m. ranging in price from $5 to $8.

Just in time for the warmer weather, the restaurant will offer martinis such as the Spring Fling -- a sweet mix of Cabana Cachaca and Malibu Rums, fresh Coconut Water, Strawberry Puree and Pineapple and Lime Juice.

Small bites such as Rhode Island Style Rock Shrimp and Buffalo Chicken Lollipops are also on the special menu.
